

2025 Scholarship Recipients

Nick Ba bington graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.75. He will attend Gonzaga University in Spokane, WA to major in broadcasting. Based on his experiences at Lincoln, his goal is to become a sports announcer and broadcaster as well as a writer of sporting event articles.

Luca Droz is the grandchild of Bonnie Wilson ('58) and graduated from Lake Washington High School in Kirkland with a cumulative GPA of 3.184. He attends Bellevue College and will transfer to a university to major in pre-med. His goal is to graduate medical school and pursue a career in sports medicine as either a Doctor of Physical Therapy, orthopedics, or a sports physician. He believes in being practical and understands that this path will save thousands of dollars.

Juliet Beckton, great grandchild of Marian Mills ('24), graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.82. She will attend Colorado State University in Fort Collins to study criminal justice and ultimately pursue a degree in law. Her goal is to use her skills to advocate for others, fight for justice, and make a meaningful difference in people's lives.

Caitlin Dru ry is the grandchild of Vicki (Lyons) He drington ('64). She graduated from Everett High School with a cumulative GPA of 3.87 and will attend Gonzaga University in Spokane, WA, to major in Civil Engineering because of its outdoor work opportunities. While touring the civil engineering department there, she became interested in the environmental and waterworks aspects of the field. This is now her ultimate goal.

Kyra Blessing graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.84. She will attend the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs to major in business with a specialization in sports management. She intends to work in collegiate athletic administration to become a general manager or college athletic director and succeed in a competitive, male-dominated field.

Ruby Dyks tra graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 4.0. She will attend the University of Washington Honors Program and major in Environmental Science with the goal of pursuing a career that will have a positive impact on her local and global community.

Talbot TE Call graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.8. She will attend New York University to major in film and video production with the goal of sharing people's stories, thereby making connections between diverse groups of people through deeper awareness and influencing the lives of others.

Ava Gh arib graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 4.0 and will attend UCLA to major in a combination of linguistics, psychology, and neuroscience. Her volunteer work at the University of Washington Autism Center inspired her desire to become a physician with a specialization in language development in the brain.

Natalie Ch amness is the granddaughter of Robert Helgeson ('55). She graduated from The King's Academy in Sunnyvale, CA, with a cumulative GPA of 3.95 and attends Samford University in Birmingham, AL, to pursue a degree in Nursing. Her goal is to become a well-qualified nurse who provides high quality care in areas such as geriatrics, the intensive care unit, or labor and delivery with a patient, calming voice in times of patients' pain, stress, and struggle.

Mahulome Gno nhossou graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.95. She will attend American University in Washington, D.C., to major in International Studies in the School of International Services and build a career that connects people across cultures and supports communities. Her long-term goal is to work internationally with organizations that focus on development and global equity, particularly in West Africa where her roots are deeply connected.

**Mahulome is the recipient of the $15,000 David L. Morgan Scholarship*

Tristan Cook graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.8. He will attend Berklee College of Music at the Boston, MA campus to major in music production and engineering and pursue a career as either a studio recording engineer or professional music producer, creating and editing music for a variety of different artists.

Addison Gri enauer is the grandchild of Robert Winkel and Sally (Wood) Winkel ('56). She graduated from West Seattle High School with a cumulative GPA of 3.867 and will attend Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo, CA. There, she will pursue degrees in Psychology with a focus on Adolescent Development. By studying psychology, she hopes to either become a family counselor or child therapist to help children work through trauma or major life changes.

Jayden Do rmier is the grandson of Jean Lokken Bo wer ('51). He graduated from Jackson High School in Everett with a cumulative GPA of 2.76. He attends Everett Community College and will later transfer to Western or WSU to pursue a degree in Marine Biology. His goal is to become further educated on the world's escalating biological problems and better understand ethical issues in our biological systems to impact the biological state of our world as a revolutionary biologist.

Caleb Hirshfeld graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.99 and will attend Cornell University in Ithaca, NY, to major in the Biology & Society Program, an interdisciplinary program that seeks to address current social concerns by building connections through a quantitative scientific lens. His aim is to contribute to his community through work in the medical field.

Courtney Lee graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 4.0 and will attend Bowdoin College in Brunswick, ME, to major in Cellular Biology while exploring her interests in Bowdoin's many subcategories of biological studies. Ultimately, she plans to pursue biological research or public health.

Aria Sa nya graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 4.0 and will attend the University of British Columbia to major in Urban Studies. She hopes to concentrate on courses similar to those she had at Lincoln that explored the relationships between people, the environment, and the systems that govern them. Her main goal is a career that considers ways that cities can be environmentally conscious, habitable and accessible for all people.

Fiona Liu graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.97 and will attend University of California Berkeley. She was selected as one of 50 students to attend their Haas School of Business's Global Management Program, whose curriculum will involve studying abroad at the University of Ghana in Accra to interact with diverse populations and means of commerce, working toward a career as an international business consultant or lawyer.

Claire Swihart graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 4.0 and will attend Stanford to major in Human Biology. The implications of her personal health related experiences in school athletics and her volunteer research assistant position at UW Medicine inspired her to consider how researchers, medical practitioners, and policy makers can best work together to address health issues. Her goal is to influence policy and contribute to a future of more equitable, accessible, and affordable healthcare.

Adelaide Lovik graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.8 and will attend WSU to pursue a degree in Neuroscience. On this path she plans to do research on neurological diseases and disorders that could help millions and become a doctor who would help others every day.

Marcus Versaw graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.88 and will attend the University of Washington to major in Structural Engineering. His fascination since childhood with designing and creating structures and his academic competence in advanced physics and math steered him toward engineering and architecture. The program at the UW allows exploring every field of engineering so it will be possible to pivot from architecture.

Ella Nelson graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.95 and will attend the University of California Berkeley to major in liberal arts in the School of Letters and Sciences. There, she will continue harnessing strong academic skills in literature, Spanish, and math while exploring and expanding her enthusiasm in theater, performance, and dance in a new community of like-minded artists.

Samantha Wagoner graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.987 and will attend Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo, CA, to pursue degrees in Marine Science. Inspired by the beauty and diversity of coral reefs and their importance to ecosystems, humans, and the economy, she wants to dedicate her life to coral reef conservation through either policy advocacy, education, or research.

Anna (Ash) Rulifson graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 3.99 and will attend Smith College in Northampton, MA, majoring in American studies with a minor in Urban Studies. Observing the dynamics between environment, access, and social justice within urban areas sparked her curiosity about how American cities were planned and how they function. She hopes to find a creative way for her work to have measurable impacts on her community.

Alayna (Lani) Wilson graduated from Lincoln with a cumulative GPA of 4.0 and will attend Whitman College in Walla Walla, WA, to study Environmental Science as well as other liberal arts subjects. Horrified by the concentration of greenhouse gas and its effect on climate as well as the destruction of ecosystems by clearcutting forests, Lani's educational goal is to make discoveries and seek solutions and bring that knowledge to a career in science.